Section 103.205 - Department of State Allowance Regulations
Effective 1 July 1947

- - - - -

(c) "Post Allowance" means the cost of living allowance granted pursuant to Section 901 (2)(i) of the Foreign Service Act of 1946 whenever the Secretary shall determine that the cost of living at a post abroad is proportionately so high that an allowance is necessary to enable an officer or employee of the Service at such post to carry on his work efficiently.

(d) "Special Post Allowance" means the cost of living allowance granted pursuant to Section 901 (2)(i) of the Foreign Service Act of 1946 whenever the Secretary shall determine that the cost of living at a post abroad is proportionately so high that a special allowance is necessary to enable the officer or employee of the Service to carry on his work efficiently at a post which is not classified for the purpose of temporary lodging, quarters, and post allowances.

(e) "Transfer Allowance" means the cost of living allowance granted pursuant to Section 901 (2) (ii) of the Foreign Service Act of 1946 whenever the Secretary shall determine that extraordinary and necessary expenses, not otherwise compensated for, are incurred by an officer or employee of the Service incident to the establishment of his residence at his post of assignment.

(f) "Separation Allowance" means the cost of living allowance granted pursuant to Section 901 (2)(iii) of the Foreign Service Act of 1946 whenever the Secretary shall determine that an allowance is necessary to assist an officer or employee of the Foreign Service who is compelled by reason of dangerous, notably unhealthful, or excessively adverse living conditions at his post abroad or for the convenience of the Government to meet the additional expense of maintaining his wife and children elsewhere than in the country of his assignment.
